AACF Celebrates 30th Anniversary Charity Golf Tournament

Sacramento, Calif. – September 27, 2022 – The annual AACF Bob Schoeberl Memorial Golf Tournament will be celebrating its 30th anniversary this year and returning to the beautiful Spanish Trail Country Club during AAPEX/SEMA Industry week in Las Vegas.

AACF Golf Committee Chairman, Jeff Helfrich stated “we’ll have many of the same events that folks have come to enjoy. Our Sunday night cocktail reception has become a ‘Who’s Who of the Automotive Aftermarket’ and it’s exciting in today’s environment to be able to network face-to-face again. In our 30 years of playing the event, we’ve yet to have a participant make a hole in one to win a car. This year it could happen as every participant will have two chances again at winning a car on the course.” Helfrich went on to say, “besides all the great raffle prizes we have, each golfer will get some very special gifts commemorating our 30th Anniversary.”

AACF Board President, Larry Magee said “You can have a great time, mingle with many of the companies and individuals important to our industry all while enjoying one of the area’s top and most beautiful golf courses. But most importantly, you are helping the AACF’s mission to provide assistance to our fellow members of the automotive aftermarket that need help during a catastrophic time in their life.”

This charity golf tournament is scheduled for October 31st, 2022. Interested companies can still sponsor the event and there are golf foursomes still available. For more information or to get involved, contact Executive Director, Joel Ayres at joel@aftermarketcharity.org.
