

Contact: Joel Ayres
AACF
Phone: (916)-628-0271
joel@aacfi.org

5716 Folsom Blvd. #149
Sacramento, CA 95819
www.aacfi.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation appoints new Board Trustee.

Sacramento, Calif. – August 6, 2019 – Lynn Parker, President of AACF, announced today the appointment of David Young to its' Board of Trustees "I have known David for many years and he has a tremendous amount of experience in the automotive aftermarket. David is very knowledgeable of the installer service segment of our industry which means that David understands how important service is to the aftermarket. David will bring a high level of service to the AACF which will equate in helping us find ways to help more people employed in our industry who have fallen on hard times and have nowhere else to turn. David will be a great asset to our board", Parker said.

David Young is Vice President of Valvoline LLC and oversees the US Light Duty National Account, Heavy Duty, and Canadian businesses. Over his 3-decade career, David has held leadership roles with Valvoline's channel partner, national accounts, marketing, and Valvoline Instant Oil Change businesses.

The newly appointed trustee is eager to apply his wealth of industry knowledge, experience and contacts combined with his intense desire to help those in need to their AACF board duties in an effort to reach more beneficiaries and increase AACF's recognition across the vast aftermarket landscape.

"As a 30-year veteran of the automotive industry and decades long participate at AACF events, I am delighted to be taking a more active role in the fantastic work that the foundation does to assist families when they are in great need. Young went on to say "I am so proud to be joining the board of trustees of an organization that provides so much to Automotive Aftermarket families in their time of greatest need."

David and his wife Erin reside in Lexington, KY and have 2 children. Beyond spending time with his wife and kids and in various local community activities, David serves on the NATSO Foundation Board. NATSO is a national trade association providing solutions and advocating for public policy goals for truck stop / travel plaza operators.

###

About the Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF)

The Automotive Aftermarket Charitable Foundation (AACF) has been helping aftermarket families turn tragedy into triumph since 1959. Like the industry, AACF is driven by passion and devoted to family. It's tough to ask for help, but when someone in the aftermarket family faces profound circumstances, AACF is there when it seems like there's nowhere else to turn. As a nonprofit, this is accomplished through the support of generous donors, awareness partners and dedicated volunteers. To learn more, contact us at www.AftermarketCharity.org.

Media Contact: Joel Ayres. Address: 5716 Folsom Blvd. #149, Sacramento, CA, 95819. Email to joel@aftermarketfoundation.org.